DIGITAL INFRASTRUCTURE FOR FASHION CREATIVES

OFFER Roster Infrastructure Retainer.

One retainer. Your entire roster, covered.

THE PROBLEM

Your talent is working. Their digital presence isn't keeping up.

A casting director in Milan or a brand in Cape Town finds your roster online — and what they see doesn't match the level of the work. No owned domain.

Inconsistent bios. Credits buried or invisible. Portfolio sites that look amateur against the bookings they're already getting.

You can't manage this individually across 10 or 15 talents.

And you shouldn't have to.

WHAT'S INCLUDED EVERY MONTH

— Discoverability audit per talent

Monthly Scan-style re-score for each talent on your roster. You see exactly who is losing visibility and why.

— One portfolio build or update

One full build or significant update per month — new signee onboarding, credit refresh, aesthetic overhaul.

— New signee positioning strategy

Every new talent joins with a positioning brief. How they're presented to the market from day one.

— Direct WhatsApp access

Not a ticket system. Not email with a 48-hour turnaround. Direct line, business hours.

— Quarterly discoverability report

Roster-wide report every 90 days. Who improved. Who slipped. What to prioritise next quarter.

SCOPE BOUNDARIES

— Additional portfolio builds beyond one per month are scoped and billed separately.

— Retainer covers up to 20 talents. Rosters above 20 require a custom agreement.

— Social media management, paid advertising, and PR are not included.

— Content creation (photography, video) is not included — Booked works with existing assets.

WHY BOOKED

Built from inside the industry. A decade working as a model across Cape Town, Hong Kong, Seoul, Shanghai, Milan, and Bali — not consulting for it. Booked knows what signals credibility to a casting director in each of these markets because it was the thing being judged. That context is the product. No competitor in this space holds it.
